An open letter to all of my patients:

I am writing to inform you of my upcoming retirement from family practice on April 30, 2022. I have been in practice at this office for over 35 years. I took over from Dr MacDonald (who some of you will remember!) in 1986. It's hard to believe it was that long ago!

I have enjoyed getting to know you over the years and I have learned a lot from you. It has been an honour and a privilege to care for each and every one of you. I will miss working with you.

I am excited to announce that Dr Bahar Ghobassy will be taking over my office practice. She will be starting in the office on a part time basis as of Feb 28, 2022 then full time as of May 2022. Many of you will already know Dr Ghobassy as she has worked for me many times when I have been on holiday. She graduated from UBC in 2008 and finished her family practice residency in 2010. She has been doing locums since that time. Dr Ghobassy is an excellent physician and I am confident that she will continue to provide you with the best care.

I wish you all health and happiness in the years to come.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Moira Bradford.

P.S. Please pass this information on to any family members that are patients. I did not have everyone's email address and my intention is not to miss anyone.

P.P.S. If you wish to transfer your records to another office we will be happy to do so when a signed consent form has been received.
